KISHCO®

SINCE 1950

ABOUT US

For over seven decades, KISHCO has been synonymous with fine cutlery and tableware in India. Established in 1950, the brand is guided by an uncompromising pursuit of quality, precision in design, and enduring performance.

From premium cutlery and tableware to hotelware and giftware, KISHCO offers collections in stainless steel, silver-plated, and gold-plated finishes. Crafted from the finest metals and engineered for longevity, each piece is designed to elevate both classic and contemporary tables.

Trusted by leading hotels, institutions, and Indian Embassies worldwide, KISHCO stands as a mark of craftsmanship, reliability, and quiet distinction. Every KISHCO creation is made to last—a legacy at the table, designed for a lifetime.

House of Kishco

House of Kishco represents the enduring legacy of fine Indian craftsmanship in flatware, cookware, hotelware, and silver-plated giftware. Over decades, the brand has evolved into a flagship Indian name, synonymous with refinement, prestige, and quiet distinction.

Kishco's distinguished clientele includes eminent institutions such as Rashtrapati Bhavan, the Prime Minister's Office, Hyderabad House, the Governor's House, and Indian Embassies worldwide—an endorsement of its uncompromising standards and timeless appeal.

Established as a landmark of luxury, Kishco supplies flatware to leading hotels and institutions across the globe, where precision, durability, and elegance are non-negotiable.

Yet, the brand's most meaningful success lies closer to home—with discerning patrons for whom every Kishco piece becomes a keepsake of heritage, craftsmanship, and a legacy worthy of being passed down through generations.

THE KISHCO INITIATIVE

The Kishco Initiative extends the brand's legacy beyond the table, championing education through a thoughtfully curated social endeavor.

In a rapidly evolving India, the initiative engages school and college students through immersive learning—introducing the principles of fine dining etiquette, civility, and presentation. Delivered through a distinctive interactive film and expertly designed workshops, the programme blends tradition with modern sensibility.

By nurturing awareness, confidence, and refinement among the next generation, the Kishco Initiative reinforces the brand's belief that true luxury is not only crafted—it is cultivated.
